

Reminder of Policyholder's Rights and Interests

Thank you for your support and patronage of Taiwan Life. To protect your rights and interests and to enhance the quality of Taiwan Life's sales and services, we remind you that sale agents are prohibited from doing the behaviors listed below:

| Item | What the sale agent should not do                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1    | The sales agent should not possess or use the policyholder's Internet banking and Internet membership account of Taiwan Life to log in to websites to apply for relevant services on behalf of the policyholder, and shall not keep the policyholder's passbook, bank card, or seal                          |
| 2    | The sales agent should not use his/her or another person's residence/domicile address, company address, or other contact information that is not the policyholder's as the policyholder's residence or contact information when the policyholder designates/changes his/her residence or contact information |
| 3    | The sales agent may not handle any insurance premiums in cash or transfer/remit money on the policyholder's behalf                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 4    | The sales agent and policyholder should not be involved in lending money or securities, or acting as an intermediary for lending money, securities, or funds                                                                                                                                                 |
| 5    | The sales agent should not provide blank application documents for policyholder signature                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

I (the insured) confirm that the sales agent has explained and followed the above prohibited behaviors during the solicitation process

Signature of Insured: _____
(Signature by legal representative if the insured is under 7 years old)

Signature of Legal Representative/Guardian/Assistant: _____
(Relationship: _____)

(If the insured is a minor or under a commencement of guardianship or assistance, the signature of his/her legal representative/guardian/assistant is required as well.)

Signature of Sale Agent: _____/_____

Month: _____ Day: _____ Year: _____